MERCHANTS PLAN BIG BARGAIN DAY

Retailers Complete Arrangements for Thursday's July Clearance Sale.

All indications point to an extraordinarily live Interurban day in South Bend on Thursday, merchants making special preparations for the event as it will be known as "Final July Clearance" day. Special bargains will be offered in all of the stores, and it is expected a large crowd of out-of-town shoppers will be attracted to the city, along with hundreds of South Bend and Mishawaka buyers.

A great many unusual values to be offered Thursday in ladies wear stores, men's stores, furniture stores, groceries, shoe stores, and other downtown business places will be advertised in tomorrow's editions of The News-Times. At Tuesday's luncheon of the retail merchants bureau of the Chamber of Commerce, members were expected to make final arrangements for the proper celebration of "Final July Clearance" day, and plans were also to be discussed for the big semi-annual "Dollar Day" of South Bend merchants, to be held on Aug. 21.

To Offer Inducements. Merchants of the city have arranged to offer bigger inducements than ever for Interurban days all through the coming year as the special day of the Chamber of Commerce bureau is now more than a year old and it has proven a big success. A number of entertainment suggestions, offered with a view of attracting larger crowds to the city, are also being considered by the bureau and will be announced from time to time.

TWO ADVERTISING FIRMS SECURE LARGER ROOMS

Additional quarters have been taken over by the Lamport-MacDonald Co., advertising agents on the fifth floor of the J. M. S. building. The new floor space is added to take care of an enlarged art department of the concern. The room formerly occupied by Charles Cole, civil engineer, has been occupied by the agency, Mr. Cole moving his office to the seventh floor of the building.

On the seventh floor of the J. M. S., the DeLury-Reeder Advertising Co., has also moved into enlarged quarters.

NEW STORES WILL BE OPENED SOON

Two new stores will shortly be opened on N. Michigan st. near Colfax av., adding greatly to the activities of this part of the downtown business section of the city. The new stores are that of the Piggly-Wiggly grocery and the shoe store of George E. Dimel. Mr. Dimel resigned from the management of the U. R. Kinney Co., retail shoe dealer, to open the new store. The Piggly-Wiggly grocery store is the second to be opened in South Bend by this national institution.

FIRM CHANGES NAME.

Changes in the business of the Indiana Motor Sales Co. on E. Jefferson av. have just been announced. The name of the concern in the future will be F. L. Mendez & Co., and the company will continue to have the agency for the Chandler automobile and has also added the new Cleveland-Six automobile to its list. Representatives of the company expect the arrival of the new Cleveland-Sixes in the city to create a sensation in local automobile circles. New 1920 model Chandler automobiles are also arriving now at the Mendez Co.

BERGER PREFERS I. W. W. TO AMERICAN FEDERATION

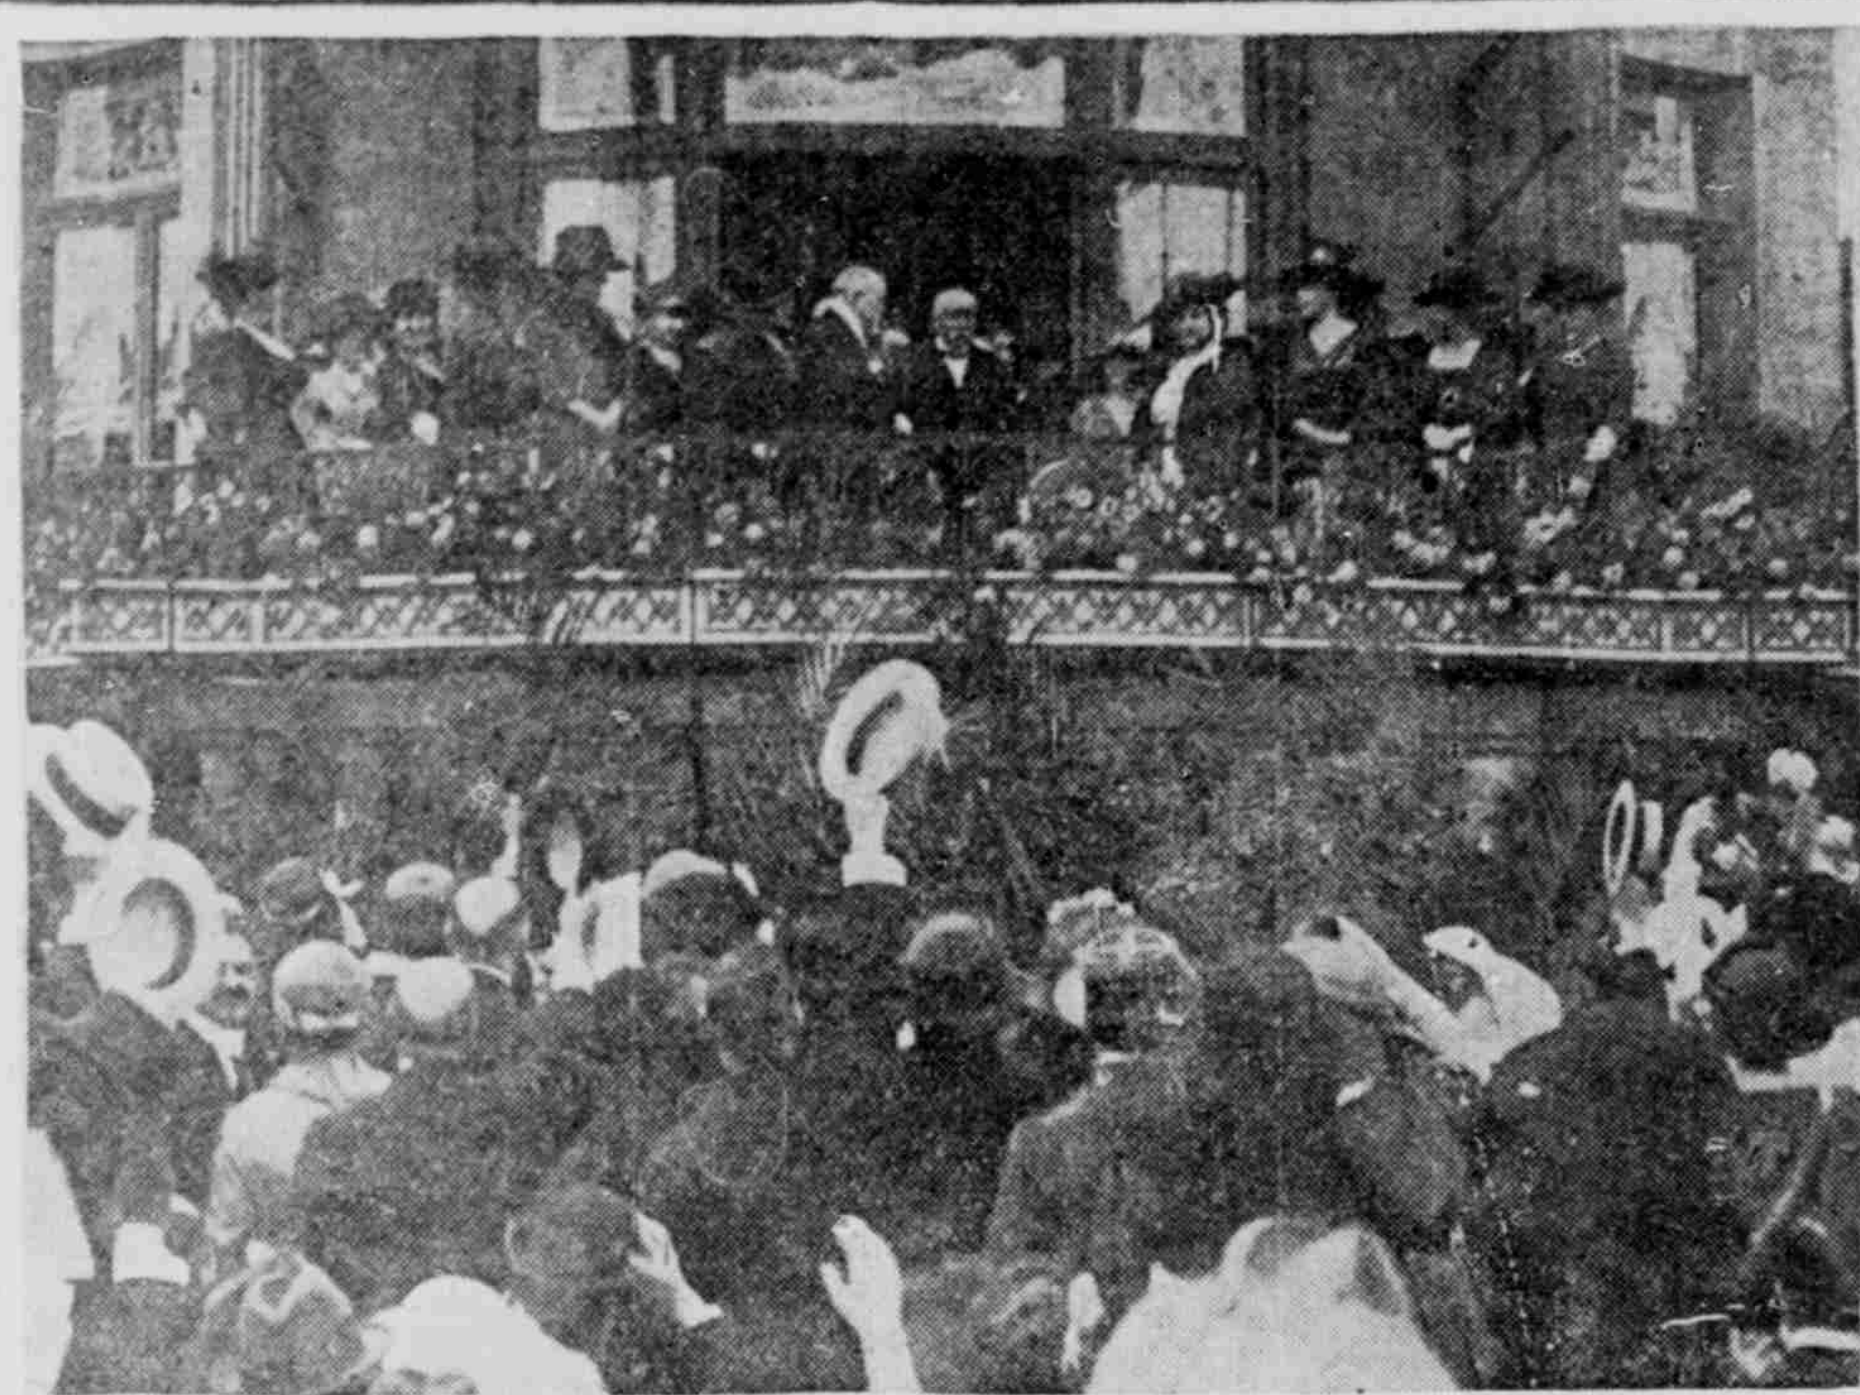

WASHINGTON, July 29.—Victor Berger, testifying Monday before the special committee investigating his right to a seat in the house, said he preferred the Industrial Workers of the World to the American Federation of Labor, because, he added, "Samuel Gompers for some time past has been the tool of the capitalists." Asked to explain this statement more fully, Mr. Berger said that of the two labor organizations, "The I. W. W. was the better, for it almost had a class instinct." Reference to the labor unions came near the end of a session devoted to a review of Mr. Berger's speeches and writings opposing the European war, which the socialist leader read to the committee.

DISINFECT FIELDS—12—

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., July 29.—Arrangements have been made by Frank N. Wallace, state entomologist, to send men to areas in the state where Australian "take-all" disease has been found in wheat. They will disinfect the fields and see that no infected grain gets away. The program calls for the threshing and disinfection of wheat and smaller grain with the disease, under state supervision, burning of all straw and stubble in the field and other precautions.

GRAND JURY RETURNS MURDER INDICTMENT

CHICAGO, July 29.—Within an hour after a coroner's jury had held Thomas Fitzgerald, confessed murderer of six-year-old Janet Wilkinson, to the grand jury, the latter returned an indictment in the criminal court charging Fitzgerald with the murder, and asking for a speedy trial.

Asst. State's Atty. James O'Brien said that as soon as counsel could be obtained for Fitzgerald, the case would be brought to trial.

Fitzgerald yesterday confessed that he had strangled Janet, a neighbor's child, to death last Tuesday and later led officers to the body, which he had buried under a pile of coal in the basement of the apartment in which he lived.

Mrs. Muriel Fitzgerald, his wife, who had been held by the police, was released this afternoon. Police warned her against returning to her home at this time, as feeling against her husband was running high in the neighborhood. Later she decided to remain in custody of the police until tomorrow.

Work is being pushed on the brick factory building of the Lightning Change Rim company, the walls are practically completed and ready for the roof. It is expected the concrete floor will be laid and machinery installed in time for operations to begin about Sept. 1. The stamping presses and other machines are ready for shipment when the factory is in shape to receive them.

Judge Thomas O'Hara, former circuit judge of Berrien county, is seriously ill with heart trouble at his home in Chicago. Mr. O'Hara and family were former residents here.

Nothing Helped Mrs. Teas Till She Took Tanlac—Told Operation Was Only Hope.

"I tried for five long years to find something that would overcome my troubles, and during the past year I spent five hundred dollars for treatment, but I never got any relief at all until I commenced taking Tanlac," said Mrs. Clarence Teas, who lives at 1205 Colorado Ave., Kansas City, Mo., the other day.

"I was certainly despondent over my condition when I began taking Tanlac," continued Mrs. Teas, "for I had just had an X-ray examination, and was told that I would never get well unless I underwent an operation. My kidneys were in bad condition, and I suffered terribly with pains in the small of my back, and frequently had bad spells of sick headaches. I had stomach trouble, too, and everything I ate would disagree with me, and finally got to where it was a little matter for me to retain what I did eat. I often had severe cramping spells which were caused by gas forming from sour, indigestible food. My condition just gradually got worse until I was very weak and run down."

"I had been reading about the good Tanlac was doing so many people right here in Kansas City, I decided to give it a trial, and it proved to be just the medicine I needed. Why, I have actually gained ten pounds, and I have only taken three bottles. My kidneys seem to be in perfect condition, and the stomach trouble has been completely overcome. I have a fine appetite, and can eat meats and pastries, and many other things I didn't dare touch before, and I never suffer a particle afterwards. I get plenty of good, restful sleep every night, and in fact, I am just as free from pain and suffering as I ever was, and feel fine all the time. Tanlac is a wonderful medicine and will certainly do just what they say it will."

Tanlac is sold in South Bend by the Central Drug Store, and in Mishawaka by the Red Cross Pharmacy.

To Keep Skin Fresh and Fine These Heated Days

It would be much better for the skin if little cream, powder, or rouge were used during the heated term. Mixed with perspiration, dust and grime, these things are anything but beautifying. Ordinary mercurized wax will do more for the complexion, and without giving an oily, streaked, spotted or pasty appearance. It is the ideal application for the season, as it not only keeps the pores clean, but daily removes particles of scarf skin which have been soiled by dirt or weather. By constantly keeping the complexion clear, white, satiny, it does more toward perpetuating a youthful countenance than any of the arts or artifices commonly employed. One ounce of mercurized wax, obtainable at any drugstore, will completely renovate the worst complexion. It is applied at night, the old cream and washed off in the morning. There's nothing better for tanned, freckled or weathered skins.

Trapper Dies in His Lonely Hut

SASKATOON, Sask., July 29.—

Emmanuel Peterson, a Hudson Bay trapper, fell asleep in his lonely cabin in the northern wilderness near Fond du Lac twelve months ago. A sheet of paper tacked on the door bears this epitaph written in English, French, Cree and Chippewyan:

"This is the grave of Emmanuel Peterson. Let no man disturb it."

Constable M. Chappins of the Royal Northwest Mounted Police traveled 2,000 miles through cold and storm at 30 degrees below zero to write that epitaph.

News that a man lay dead in a cabin somewhere north of Lake Athabasca trickled down to Edmonton last February. There was suspicion that he might have been murdered. Chappins was assigned to investigate. He was gone three months.

He found Peterson's body perfectly preserved in the cold, dry air. There were no signs of violence. The last entry in Peterson's diary made March 29, 1918, read:

"I am very sick. It would be hell if I should die out here among the snowdrifts all alone."
